Pentecost

Theme/Call To Worship

Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate Pentecost, the birth of the church, and all three readings for Pentecost Sunday focus on the workings of the Holy Spirit.

Introduction To The Word

Acts 2:1-11: The first reading from Acts begins with the statement: "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together." For ancient Israel, the feast of Pentecost celebrated the giving of the law on Mount Sinai, which defined Israel as a people and as a nation. For Luke, just as ancient Israel was guided by the law, so now the church is led by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13: In the second reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians, we hear Paul speak of the Holy Spirit. In writing his letter, Paul employed a variety of strategies to appeal for Christian unity, one of which we hear in today's reading: the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Jn 20:19-23: Today's reading is taken from the Gospel of John, and it is the resurrected Christ's first encounter with the disciples. Hiding in fear behind locked doors, Jesus' initial words to the disciples are, "Peace be with you." Jesus then commissions the disciples ("As the Father has sent me, so I send you") and empowers them with the Spirit ("Receive the Holy Spirit"). The disciples' success in building up the early church was directly connected to the presence of the Spirit in their lives and in their work.

Father Ian Gibbons, SJ, who is the Assistant Principal of Regis High School, and who has been celebrating the Eucharist with us for the past three years, will be leaving for a new assignment as the Principal of St. Louis University High School, in St. Louis, Missouri. Fr. Gibbons' last Sunday at St. Thomas More will be June 11th.

Please join us in the Rochester Room on Sunday, June 11th to celebrate his new appointment and thank him for his ministry to the St. Thomas More community at a Coffee Hour after the celebration of the Eucharist at the 10 AM Mass.

SPRING SEMI-ANNUAL APPEAL

Continues

All parishioners should have received a mailing about our Spring Semi-Annual Appeal. If you have not yet received your letter, please contact Ms. Peet at the STM Parish Office. This year the focus of this appeal is to help make up for much lower Sunday collections during the warm months, to build up a reserve for major projects, which includes the landscaping of our newly completed ramp, and manage some of the unintended consequences of construction. Please read the letter carefully and respond as generously as you can. Your continued support is sincerely appreciated.

Leisure Lunch Program

Congratulations on the completion of another successful Leisure Luncheon season. Our next Leisure Luncheon is September 19th after the 12:15 Mass. Have a good Summer.
