

LENTEN RETREAT 2007

The Church and Parish of St. Thomas More will conduct a Lenten Retreat From Saturday, February 24th through Wednesday, February 28th.

Fr. John O'Grady, who has been with us on a number of past occasions during Holy Week, will be the principal homilist at Saturday's anticipatory 5:45 p.m. Mass and will be the principal homilist at all of Sunday's Masses.

On Sunday evening, 02-25-07, immediately following the celebration of the 5:45 p.m. evening Mass, Fr. John O'Grady will lead us in a meditation entitled: Redemption and Salvation.

On Monday evening, 02-26-07, immediately following the celebration of the 5:45 p.m. evening Mass, Fr. John O'Grady will lead us in a meditation entitled: Original Sin, Mortal and Venial Sins - sins of malice and sins of weakness.

On Tuesday evening, 02-27-07, immediately following the celebration of the 5:45 p.m. evening Mass, Fr. John O'Grady will lead us in a Communal Penance Service, Jn 20: 19-23 - Peace in the midst of human failure.

On Wednesday evening, 02-28-07, immediately following the celebration of the 5:45 p.m. evening Mass, Fr. John O'Grady will lead us in a meditation entitled: The Custodial and Charismatic Presence in the Family and in the Church. After the conclusion of that evening's mediation, there will be a wine and cheese social gathering which will allow participants to meet Fr. O'Grady personally.

All are invited and encouraged to attend.
