THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Theme/Call To Worship

Think for a moment. What are two special gifts that we have, not merited or earned but are gifts of God to us? They are the gift of life and the gift of grace. Are we able to recognize them as gifts and express our appreciation for them? How well do we use them?

Introduction To The Word

- I. Proverbs 31: 10-13, 19-20, 30-31 An encomium for a good and worthy wife. This passage from Proverbs extols all the virtues which a worthy wife possesses – fidelity, industriousness, skill, charity to the poor, and fear of the Lord.
- II. 1 Thessalonians 5: 1-6 Once again, Paul reassures the Thessalonians, who are anxious about the coming of Christ, that they need not fear being unprepared because they are “children of light.”
- III. Gospel Matthew 25: 14-30 Jesus narrates the parable of the talents – in the story, the silver pieces given to the three men. Two of the men invest their coins and double their worth, but the third buries his coins in the ground and earns no return. The message of Jesus is that we must use to the fullest the talents we have received.

November, 2008

Dear Friends in the Lord:

Thanks giving Day provides each of us an opportunity to thank the Lord for the many blessings that He has bestowed upon us as well to think about and do something for those who are less fortunate than ourselves. Nearly four decades ago, a holy and compassionate clergyman, Bishop Michael R. Dempsey, who was personally known to me, launched the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. It has since become a national collection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops which, because of its emphasis on providing for the neediest in our midst, is taken up in our parishes at Thanksgiving. This collection does immense good for the hungry, the homeless, the stranger, and the physically and mentally afflicted across the nation, including here in our own Archdiocese where it assists, for example, Youth Ministries for Peace and Justice and the North West Bronx Community and Clergy Coalition. With this letter, I ask you to consider making a generous contribution to this very worthy campaign.

May you and your loved ones have a Blessed Thanksgiving.

With prayerful best wishes, may I remain

Very truly yours in Christ.

Edward Cardinal Egan
Archbishop of New York
