Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time point to the importance of a meek and humble heart as the proper disposition for the faithful. Christians of all ages are called to live in the Spirit.

Introduction To The Word

Zechariah 9:9-10: The first reading is from the prophet Zechariah. Among his many prophecies, one that stood out was the coming "Prince of Peace." Zechariah envisioned a coming messianic age not ushered in by a warrior king, but rather, a king "proclaiming peace to the nations."

Romans 8:9, 11-13: In today's reading, Paul speaks of the inherent tension between the Spirit and the flesh. Paul's worldview in this regard is very basic: all people are slaves to either the flesh, which brings sin and therefore death, or to the Spirit, which brings eternal life.

Matthew 11:25-30: The Gospel reading begins with Jesus offering a prayer to the Father. Jesus begins his prayer with a rather startling claim: "Although you [God] have hidden these things [the totality of Jesus' good news about himself and the kingdom of heaven] from the wise and learned [the Scribes and Pharisees] you have revealed them to the little ones [the majority of Jesus' followers: uneducated or untrained people]." In the second half of today's Gospel reading, Jesus invites all those listening—the wise and the learned as well as the little ones—to "learn from me." He offers the crowds the key to understanding the revelation of the Father and the Son: be "meek and humble of heart." Adapted from Liturgical Publications Inc, Connect! Uniting Word & World, Dr. Daniel J. Sch

Caregivercare

Dementia Services New York

Caregivercare - provides programs, free of charge, at the Church of St. Thomas More, for seniors with or without a cognitive impairment, and their family caregivers.

All of their programs are neuroprotective activities designed to reduce the rate of memory and cognitive decline over time.

One of their neuroprotective programs, called "Learning Italian," was initiated last June, with very positive results. "Learning Italian" is scheduled to resume on Monday, September 18th at 2.00 p.m.

More information about Caregivercare will be posted in the Church Bulletin as it becomes available. Should you have a specific question, about their programs, please email info@caregivercare.org

Child Safety

The Archdiocese of New York is committed to doing all that it can to protect young children and young people from sexual abuse. As part of that effort, we periodically reach out to the Catholic community to advise them whom they may contact and what steps they can take if they have suffered abuse by someone representing the Catholic Church.

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, OP at 212-371-1000 X 2949 or Deacon George J. Coppola at 917-861-1762. Both may also be reached via email at victimassistance@archny.org.

Information can also be found on the Archdiocesan website, www.archny.org.

In keeping with the Archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.
